5. Essay

In reading your responses to the following questions, we look forward to finding out a number of things about you; how you think and what your imaginative and creative powers are, how effectively you communicate, how you apply your knowledge and experience, and what your evaluative judgment is like. We hope to know, as well as you can tell us, what sort of person you are.

The essay should be typed on separate sheets of paper that are clearly marked with your full name and essay question chosen.

Please choose one question or topic from the following:

1. Of your accomplishments, which one do you value most? Why?
2. People can be judged, if not defined, by how they solve problems. How do you solve problems?
3. How might your background, values, and experience add to the diversity of the International University of Monaco?
4. How do you anticipate that your chosen program of studies help you impact positively the community after graduation?

6. Recommendations

Please give one of the two forms below to one person who is best able to recommend you for the scholarship (such as an academic advisor, former instructor, counselor, teacher, colleague or professional supervisor) for completion. It is your responsibility to be sure that the recommendation is completed, submitted, and postmarked by the relevant deadline.

For EMBA applicants, a professional recommendation is required.

Please list below the name of the person who will write a recommendation on your behalf:

Non-academic Evaluation of Candidate for a Scholarship

Name of Candidate	_____
	Last	First	Middle
Home Address	_____
	Street/Apt./PO Box	City	State	Zip Code	Country
School Attending	_____

To the evaluator:

The Scholarships Committee at the International University of Monaco would be grateful for your frank evaluation of the above named candidate in the light of such questions as: How long and under what circumstances have you known the candidate? What, from your personal knowledge, can you tell us about the candidate's character and personality that may tend to distinguish him/her from other young people of your acquaintance?

On the basis of the candidate's past achievements, both intellectual and otherwise, what leads you to believe that he/she is likely to make outstanding contributions to the college community? What evidence can you offer that the candidate will probably become the kind of leader whose life and career after college would be of significant benefit to society? If you have any additional information that might help the committee arrive at a more accurate evaluation of the candidate, please add this information.

Please print (using black ink only) or type your responses.
